The Army and Navy Prep team was a bit off color yesterday in its game with Friends, making a win out of a closely contested game. Friends displayed strength in every department of the game, and can be looked upon as a worthy opponent in all its remaining battles. King proved to be the best shot from the floor, caging nine baskets. The A. N. P. team produced two good goal shooters in Zerbe and Miller.

Western has put its regular toam on the floor. The score of 64 is better than any made by Western last season.
